

SCHOOL BOARD VOTES FOR CIRCUS VACATION AT REGULAR MEETING

Resolutions Adopted Naming Play Grounds For A. S. White and A. H. Heisey, Who Made Generous Gifts to Playground Funds

"PATRON'S WEEK" PLANNED BY SUPT. HAWKINS

No Bids for $30,000 Bonds and Board Increases Rate of Interest to Make Sale Possible—Two Teachers Resign—Bids Opened for Construction of Addition to Indiana Street Building—Mr. Redding Here.

That the spirit of their boyhood days is still active in the breasts of the members of the school board was indicated Tuesday night when the board, by a unanimous vote decided to close the public schools all day Monday, April 28, Circus Day, to allow the school children opportunity to see not only the circus parade but attend the afternoon performance of the show as well. Not only was the vote on the question unanimous but the motion for such action was put simultaneously by three members, each motion receiving a hearty second.

The action of the board is in keeping with a half promise made several weeks ago when it was intimated that if the children would assist in the campaign for raising the fund for the equipment of the play grounds, they would be given an opportunity to jollify. The high school pupils indicated that they would regard circus day as an opportune time and this desire was communicated to the board by Superintendent Hawkins. The board's action followed immediately.

All the members of the board were present except Mr. Broome. President Kibler asked to be excused after the routine business was transacted, having another engagement, and President Pro Tem Miller took the chair while bids were opened for the new addition to the Conrad (Indiana Street) building. The meeting was largely attended by bidders for the various features of the work.

After allowing a number of bids, the regular work was taken up. Superintendent Hawkins in a statement to the members, asked the board's sanction of a plan he had formulated for a "Patrons' Week" in the public schools. The board, by resolution, directed the superintendent to issue invitations to the parents of pupils to visit the schools during a week which will be designated later.

Two resignations were accepted and the places filled from the list of teachers in reserve. Miss Emma Mindling, of the Seventh grade at the East Main street building and Miss Eleanor Place of the Fifth grade at the Central building both asked to be relieved from their duties. Miss McMahon and Mrs. Taylor were elected to the vacancies.

The matter of enclosing the Indiana street grounds and placing the play ground equipment was left to a special play ground committee, consisting of Messrs. Haight, Dewey and Miller.

By resolution, the Indiana street play ground was named "Heisey Athletic Field," in honor of the liberal benefactors of A. H. Heisey. Mr. Heisey contributed $300 towards the fund for the equipment of play grounds.

The letter from Archibald S. White of Cincinnati, which accompanied his gift of $1,000 to the play ground fund, was read, and a resolution was adopted extending the thanks of the board and the people of Newark for the splendid gift. Mr. Kibler read a letter which he had addressed to Mr. White, thanking him for the gift and telling him of the plans of the board in regard to Newark's play grounds.

Mr. White asked a number of questions regarding the plans, how the tract was acquired, under whose charge it would be placed, how much would be expended, and how the fund was provided. The board members were grateful for Mr. White's interest in the work and the resolution of "thanks included a clause naming the Eleventh street ground the "White Athletic Field."

The board Tuesday night took formal action to dispose of the funds already raised for play grounds. A resolution was adopted to place the money in some bank to be designated by the play ground committee, to the credit of the play ground fund. The money will be paid out upon the order of the president and clerk of the board. J. K. Dewey was named treasurer of the fund and was requested to furnish bond in the sum of $5,500 as a formality. Mr. Hawkins stated that the fund already consisted of $1,700 cash and that collections which could be made at any time would bring the total instantly to about $2,500. The balance can be collected as it is needed.

Mr. Hawkins stated that the high school organizations were ready at any time to pay the amounts subscribed. The superintendent urged the board to include the press of the city in the resolutions of thanks. "The campaign would have been impossible without the support of the press," he said. "The papers rendered valuable assistance and charged us nothing for the space taken up by the special article."

Funds and Supplies For Flood Sufferers Are Still Needed

It is impossible to place an estimate either upon the amount or the value of the relief Newark people have rendered in the flood sufferers. The cash subscriptions are in the neighborhood of $25,000—and the total value of supplies from Newark made this month to date are approximately 45 tons—practically all of which has gone to Zanesville.

A number of shipments have been made to Columbus and Dayton and also to Dresden. On Tuesday the Advocate issued sixty shipping tags to be attached to boxes destined to Dresden alone. In the past two weeks the Advocate has given not less than $60 shipping tags addressed to A. E. Starr, Zanesville. People from every section of the city and from Granville, St. Louisville and Union Station have received them from promising to make a shipment of supplies to Zanesville or to Dresden.

The spirit manifested by the people is fine. All have been glad to give supplies but a comparatively few have given money. The money that has been given has been used in the purchase of food, bedding, rubber boots, brooms, mops and cooking stoves at the request of the Zanesville committee. These articles have been purchased from local people at cost and in several instances far below cost. Mr. W. W. Wehrle sent to the Advocate $100 cash and made the committee a price on 40 gas cooking ranges far below the cost of manufacture. Workmen in one of the Wehrle shops, the nickel department, took up a collection of $19.50 and sent it to this office. The men in the mold shop at the Fryer factory did likewise. Two friends today sent a dollar each. J. M. Bell sent a $2 bill. A friend $3. Money will be very welcome in any amount.

WHILE NEWARK IS TO BE CONGRATULATED UPON WHAT HAS BEEN DONE, THIS CITY IN COMPARISON WITH OTHER TOWNS, SMALLER AND LESS FAVORED, HAS NOT GIVEN WHAT IT SHOULD GIVE. ACTUAL PRESSING DISTRESS EXISTS AT OUR VERY DOOR. THE FACT THAT NEWARK ESCAPED THE AWFUL FLOOD MAKES IT DIFFICULT FOR MANY TO REALIZE THAT OUR NEIGHBORS ARE REALLY SUFFERING. THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS HAVE LOST THEIR ALL. THESE PEOPLE ARE NOT IN CHINA OR INDIA BUT ARE RIGHT HERE IN OHIO—NEXT DOOR TO NEWARK. LET ALL WHO HAVE NOT AS YET CONTRIBUTED DO SO NOW. THE NEED IS PRESSING. THE GIFT WILL BE APPRECIATED AND WILL DO THE GIVER AND THE RECEIVER GREAT GOOD.

Mr. O. C. Jones has just bought the McCullum grocery stock at Granville and will distribute the goods to flood sufferers. Mr. Jones asked the Advocate to communicate this fact to Mr. A. E. Starr, chairman of the Zanesville Relief Association and to request Mr. Starr to give him the names of people who are in need in order that he may send the provisions direct. Mr. Jones feels that Columbus is big and rich enough to care for her suffering people. Cincinnati is looking after Hamilton and the nation at large is sending supplies to Dayton. He feels that the smaller towns are being overlooked and that the small places do not have the resources, the men and the ability to rehabilitate themselves. Thousands of people between Zanesville and the Ohio river need help and Mr. Jones intends to do his part towards relieving the distress that exists. These people need provisions from the outside world for weeks to come.

The Zanesville relief committee now has on hand $40,000 in cash. The work of spending this money for the benefit of the flood sufferers will begin as soon as the distribution of all free gifts made to Zanesville is completed. "The Red Cross people," says Agnes Cooke, "will provide the workmen with the bare necessities of life possibly pay a month's rent and give him a grocery order and thus start him forward again on the path to success."

The terrible condition of residents living in and near Blue Rock is shown in a list prepared for the Red Cross by Sheriff J. J. Frick who made a trip from Zanesville to Gaysport. The Zanesville Signal prints a column list of names of families who are destitute in that section as a result of the flood.

The little city of Alliance which has raised $20,000 for Zanesville, sent another car of bed clothing and food to Zanesville yesterday.

Tuesday's Zanesville Signal says: "Columns of space are being given every afternoon in the Newark Advocate to petitions for funds for Zanesville flood sufferers. Noble work is being done by the people of Newark through their successful efforts to provide victims of the relentless current which swept through this city with the necessities of life."

Wednesday morning's Times Recorder of Zanesville says: "The heartfelt thanks of the citizens' relief committee for Newark's neighborly interest in Zanesville's behalf have been sent to the Newark people through the Advocate of that city by Secretary Ellenberger of the general executive committee. Newark has been doing monumental work for Zanesville relief, and the work is continuing daily with shipments regularly being sent to this city. These supplies (Continued on page 8, col. 4.)

Two New Congressmen Who are Expected to Make Names for Themselves

Stanley Bowdell of Cincinnati, a man who beat Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of former President Power, in the race for congress last fall, is expected to be the more famous than his predecessor. He can talk and he has a fine line of humor which is likely to carry the House at times. Heaven sealed Nick Longworth's head on the story referring to the all head of his opponent. But I am going to skin him.

He won—largely with a humor. His friends say he will soon be one of the most popular men of the House.

Peter Goebel Gerry, the new member of the House from Irish Island, one of the wealthiest men in congress, is also a representative of New York. Newport and Washington society. Gerry is said to be a young man of about thirty. His wife was Miss Mathilda Townsend, daughter of Mrs. Townsend of Washington and one of the leaders of society in the national capital.

11 BILLS SIGNED BY GOV. COX

Recently Passed by Senates But None Was Administration Measure

STEERING COMMITTEE

Of House Places the Redistricting Bill on the Calendar for Today—Many Changes Made.

Columbus, April 16.—Governor Cox today signed 11 bills which recently were passed by the legislature. None of the administration measures were included in the number signed.

To the accompaniment of noises made by the Republican members to imitate that of a large steam roller the lower house of the legislature today passed the public utility bill by a vote of 75 to 35.

Republicans opposed the measure on the ground that it will allow Governor Cox to completely reorganize the personnel of the public utilities commission. The measure besides reorganization also provides for the physical valuation by the commission of the property of all public and private utilities and the establishment of a uniform system of accounting by all utilities.

Republicans opposed the measure also because it removes the limit which the commission may expend in one year. Rates charged by public utilities hereafter would be based upon the physical valuation of their properties according to the bill.

The house steering committee has placed the Fulton congressional redistricting bill on the Wednesday calendar so the committee on federal relations has at last washed its hands of it. It will be up to the Democratic members now to see that it is put over or beaten. The plan is to amend it on the floor to make the districts run like this:

First and Second districts, Hamilton county.

Third, Preble, Montgomery, Butler counties.

Fourth, Allen, Mercer, Auglaize, Shelby, Miami, Darke.

Fifth, Williams, Fulton, Defiance, Henry, Paulding, Putnam, Van Wert.

Sixth, Clermont, Highland, Brown, Adams, Scioto, Pike.

Seventh, Logan, Union, Champaign, Clark, Madison, Greene, Fayette, Warren, Clinton.

Eighth, Hancock, Hardin, Wyandot, Crawford, Marion, Morrow.

Ninth, Lucas, Ottawa.

Tenth, Vinton, Athens, Meigs, Jackson, Gallia, Lawrence.

Eleventh, Pickaway, Ross, Fairfield, Hocking, Perry.

Twelfth, Franklin.

Thirteenth, Wood, Sandusky, Seneca, Erie, Huron.

Fourteenth, Lorain, Medina, Summit, Portage.

Fifteenth, Muskingum, Guernsey, Morgan, Noble, Washington, Monroe.

Sixteenth, Columbiana, Carroll, Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont.

Seventeenth, Ashland, Richland, Knox, Licking, Coshocton, Delaware.

Eighteenth, Wayne, Holmes, Tuscarawas, Stark.

Nineteenth, Ashtabula, Trumbull, Mahoning.

Twentieth, Lake Geauga, part of Cuyahoga.

Twenty-first and Twenty-second, remainder of Cuyahoga.

This will not give a safe Democratic district for Congressman-at-large Robert Crocker of Cleveland.

The Haas bill legalizing the Ohio flood commission appointed by the governor without authority was passed today by the senate. The commission composed of five members is to have general supervision over the work of restoring public property damaged by the recent flood and to co-operate with other relief organizations in alleviating suffering of the people in the stricken districts. Another flood relief measure authorizing county commissioners of Preble county to contribute $500 for the relief of flood sufferers in Dayton was passed by the senate.

A bill providing for the appointment of a commission to select a site for a new penitentiary in the rural districts carrying a $25,000 appropriation for the site passed the senate today. It now goes to the governor.

Opposition to Free Wool Acts for 15 Percent Ad Valorem Duty on Raw Wool.

Washington, April 16.—"Fifteen per cent ad valorem duty on raw wool" was the slogan of the organized opposition to the administration's free wool bill when the Democratic caucus resumed consideration of the bill today. Democrats from Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and many of the Western states agreed to stand by their decision to fight for a fifteen per cent duty which they claim was the original judgment of the ways and means committee before consulting with President Wilson. Representative Ashbrook of Ohio prepared to lead the fight on the floor of the caucus.

PROGRESS MADE IN SMITH TRIAL AT SPRINGFIELD

Springfield, O., April 16.—Rapid progress was made this afternoon toward selection of a jury in the trial of Dr. Arthur B. Smith, charged with the murder of his first wife, Florence Smith. When court recessed at noon the third venire had been exhausted and examination of a fourth venire of 20 was started. When recess was taken 11 men occupied the jury box having been accepted subject to possible peremptory challenge. Of the peremptories the state has yet one to use and the defense four. Indications were that a jury would be secured before night.

Washington, April 16.—After a conference with President Wilson today Chairman Underwood expressed confidence that the tariff bill would be approved by the house without any important amendments within the next sixty days. He said it was the plan to give the minority a full hearing. He said amendments from the Republicans were expected but that the bill would pass with only a few minor changes.

The senate's investigation of alleged police negligence in the protection given to women during a pageant which was begun more than a month ago was resumed today. The investigation is expected to be finished soon.

Charles R. Crane of Chicago, formerly under consideration by President Wilson for ambassador to Russia, called at the White House today. No official statement was made following the conference.

LAST WILL BEING MADE BY PONTIFF

Attorney Summoned to Vatican This Morning for the Purpose

FEAR PIUS NEAR DEATH

Suffers New Relapse Last Evening and Weakness Increases During the Night—Temperature at 102.

Rome, April 16.—The Pope had an alarming coughing spell this afternoon, almost causing suffocation. The attack was followed by such exhaustion that those attending the Pontiff feared the worst.

Subsequent to the excess of coughing the pope had a period of depression, but after a rest he appeared relieved. At this hour the condition of His Holiness is considered stationary.

Rome, April 16.—The temperature of the Pope varied frequently during the forenoon. He was able to take some nourishment this morning. The aggravation of the condition of the Pope which occurred last evening reached its climax about midnight and gradually wore off during the morning. Weakness of the Pope however, increased during the night.

An attorney was summoned to the Vatican this morning and it was said he would draw up the last will and testament of the Pontiff.

Rome, April 16.—Once again there has been a sudden change for the worse in the condition of Pope Pius X. It is changes such as this that have repeatedly transformed the feeling of optimism regarding the pope's recovery into one of grave anxiety. In the knowledge that each recurrence withdraws something from the vital forces of the patient.

Notwithstanding the reassurances of Professor Marchisava, a careful watch is being kept on the Vatican, and there is doubt that the satisfactory general condition of the pontiff, as reported by the doctors, is borne out by the facts.

The temperature of the pope which throughout the whole of yesterday remained at 97 degrees, in itself indicating depression and weakness, rose in the early evening to 100, and later to 102. The bronchial symptoms, which at the morning examinations were found to be diminished, presented new and grave features last evening.

The affected zone on the left side of the chest was further congested with a possible area of consolidation, one of the signs of pneumonia, and the sounds within the bronchial tubes were more pronounced.

The attending physicians ordered a special bacteriological examination of the sputum, in order to ascertain whether it contained infectious material and the nature of the detritus that threatens to block up the lungs.

The darkest reports are being circulated.

LOCAL MAN TO REFEREE MAIN BOUT

The Pan Handle Athletic Club of Columbus, will stage the next boxing show in Columbus on Monday evening April 21. The past reputation of this club suffices that a high-class show will be seen and as the receipts go towards the flood sufferers, the followers of the game should flock to their support in this matter. The management of the club brings two noted middleweights together in the main go of the evening. Clonk Coakley of Ft. Wayne, Ind., pitted against "Black" Croose of Pittsburg, Pa. Both Coakley and Croose have met the best boys and their record shows them to be above the average boxers. Coakley has boxed such boys as Dillon, Tony Caponi, Tommy Connors. He also knocked out Kid Clark recently in Springfield, O. His record shows him to possess forty-eight knockouts in the last three years. Croose on the other hand has fought them all. Last week at Pittsburg he boxed Dillon and nearly put the sleep producer on him. As Coakley is one of the most clever men in the ring and also can hit the fur should fly in this bout. There is also some bad blood between these boys and their difficulty will be settled next Monday night. The semi-final of ten rounds, between Mickey Byrnes of Cleveland and Johnny Ray of Pittsburg brings together two of the younger set of featherweights. Cleveland and Pittsburg scribes state that both will be champions in the course of time and the Pittsburg critic states that this boy Ray is the most scientific boxer ever seen in Pittsburg. Being young and ambitious a battle of the whirlwind variety that is a treat to watch should be witnessed. The preliminary has not been decided upon by the management but the best to be had will be offered. Another bout, a wrestling match between "Pan Handle" Smith and Young Gorch will be offered as an extra attraction.

The Pan Handle management has secured the services of Charles Henry of Newark to referee the main bout, which is an assurance that it will be handled in a manner perfectly satisfactory to fight fans. Mr. Henry has lately received several flattering offers to referee bouts, one at Pittsburg, but has turned them down. As the Columbus bout is for the benefit of the flood sufferers he has offered his services gratis. It is a foregone conclusion that many of his friends from this city will see him in action next Monday night. Danny Jones, President of the Pan Handle club, states that the bill will be one of the best ever given in Central Ohio, and Danny's statements are always backed up by the goods. A fact that Newark fight fans are well aware of. Newark lovers of the same will turn out en masse and accompany Referee Henry to Columbus next Monday night.

BULLET MAY RE BACK OF EYEBALL

Dr. M. H. Peelle, physician attending Harvey Patterson, who was shot Monday while on a fishing trip, fears that the bullet which was thought to have passed from the man's head after injuring the eye, may have lodged back of the eyeball. He injury has not responded to treatment as might be expected and symptoms have developed which indicate that the bullet may be lodged back of the eyeball. A more searching examination revealed the fact that the eyeball was not seriously injured, but the new complications stirred to the fear that dangerous results may follow.

NO FEDERAL AID IN FLOOD RELIEF

Columbus, April 16.—Congress will not make any specific appropriation for flood relief. Federal relief for Ohio will be cared for in two ways. The war department will continue its relief work by supplying tents, rations, medical supplies and officials to supervise the sanitary conditions, and the treasury department will deposit government funds in the national banks in the flood cities, taking municipal, county and state as well as government bonds as security.

Senator Pomeroy says that this means that the relief work will not be as effective as it would have been if a stipulated sum had been appropriated, but he is sure that the war department will continue to render valuable help. He said that federal funds will be forwarded to the banks when application is made for this by Governor Cox.

Mr. Dickinson, replying to the Advocate telegram says:

Climate Failed; Medicine Effective

It has been absolutely shown that rest, fresh air and good food do help many persons suffering from Tuberculosis. But it must be admitted that the climate is seldom more than "arrested." Something more is needed.

Ekman's Alternative is a medicine made for the treatment of Tuberculosis. It has conquered this disease again and again. Often these patients have been identified where the surroundings were not ideal. Yet recoveries resulted. Now we argue that Ekman's Alternative should be used in every case of Tuberculosis, in addition to good, nourishing food and fresh air, which we all need. A remarkable case follows:

Gettemen: Through Ekman's Alternative I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia. My lungs became very much affected. My system was exhausted and Tuberculosis bacilli were found. On February 21, 1905, I was advised to move to a warmer climate. While there an abscess in my right lung became very much enlarged. My physician informed me that I must go to Colorado as quickly as possible. I left Texas June 21 and arrived in Canon City, June 28. After being there for three weeks, my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, believing that the doctor had given me no assurance of reaching there alive.

"On July 14, 1905, I began taking Ekman's Alternative. For my consumption. Today I weigh 125 pounds. I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator. I have not an ache or pain in my lungs. I sleep well, sleep well and never feel better."

(Signed) EDWARD WEBER.

Ekman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in rebuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or anything coming under the name of "coughing" or "expectorating" and writes to Ekman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. Newark Women Interested In New Treatment Believes Colds Over Night and Croup in Fifteen Minutes—Applied Externally.

NOTHING TO SWALLOW. NO DOSING THE STOMACH.

Druggists Below Have Arranged to Sell 25c, 50c and $1.00 Packages on 30 Days' Trial.

The mothers of Newark are much interested in the new treatment for croup and cold troubles, recently imported from the south by the local wholesale druggists. To mothers with small children, the point of most interest about this new treatment is that it is used externally and so does away with the necessity of dosing delicate little stomachs with strong internal medicines.

This treatment is in the form of a salve which is applied over the throat and chest. The body heat releases the vapors of Pine Tar, Eucalyptol, Thymol, Camphor and Menthol, and these soothing, antiseptic vapors are inhaled with each breath direct to the lungs. At the same time the preparation is absorbed through the skin, taking out the soreness.

In cases of croup a little rubbed over the chest will render the breathing easier in five minutes, and in fifteen minutes the trouble is over. The most severe head or chest colds are usually relieved in one night. For all bronchial troubles, catarrh, sore throat, hoarseness and difficult breathing, this new treatment will be found wonderfully effective.

No one realizes the value of a treatment of this kind better than the skilled druggist, and in order that their customers may test its virtues for themselves, the druggists of Newark have arranged to sell this new preparation, known as Vicks Croup and Pneumonia Salve, on 30 days' trial. With each purchase you will be given a slip showing the date of your purchase. If you are not delighted with the results, present this slip to your druggist any time within 30 days from the date of purchase and your money will be promptly refunded. The Newark druggists carrying this preparation are City Drug Store, A. L. Dech, Evans Drug Store, W. A. Erman, Bristol M. East, C. W. Douce, Marshall's Drug Store, R. W. Smith, and E. L. Williams.

First Things

The first man to use anthracite coal as a domestic fuel was Judge Jesse Fell, who was born in Buckingham, Pa., 162 years ago today. Experiments made with anthracite had previously been made by two Connecticut blacksmiths, named Gore, in 1763, but it was not until 1805 that Judge Fell demonstrated the great commercial possibilities of the coal which is, except the diamond, the purest form of carbon known. In Judge Fell's day anthracite was called "stone-coal," and the early experiments with it as domestic fuel are amusing in the light of the present. As anthracite kindles with difficulty and requires special furnaces, grate-bars, and other fixtures, it was considered absolutely worthless before the experiments of Judge Fell and other subsequent investigators proved its great commercial possibilities. The best anthracite is found in a comparatively limited field in Pennsylvania. The annual production is in the neighborhood of 30,000,000 tons, and the value at the mines about $175,000,000.

PAN-AMERICAN MINES RUNNING FULL CAPACITY

Wayne Collier of the Pan-American Coal company, returned Wednesday morning from a trip to the mines south of Zanesville. An Advocate reporter he stated that the flood trouble at the mine had been remedied and that the mine was now operating full force. The railroads, in a large measure, had recovered from the effects of the damage done by the flood and a full supply of coal cars has been furnished the operators.

Mr. Collier states that the Muskingum river cut a new channel south of Zanesville, taking away the entire paved roadway for a long distance. He stated that the work of cleaning up the flood stricken area is progressing but that hardly any impression had been made in the devastation wrought by the surging waters. "It will require weeks of continuous labor to remove all traces of the flood," said Mr. Collier.

GETTING READY TO START WORK ON HOSPITAL

Weather conditions permitting it is hoped by the trust to start work on the new City Hospital soon. The weather has been such that the contractor has been holding off but if the nice days continue material will be rushed on the ground and work started as soon as possible.

GYPSIES ORDERED TO LEAVE HIGHWAY

Chief of Police Blizard and Patrolman Burke visited a gypsy camp west of the city Wednesday morning and ordered the caravan to hunt another stopping place. The trip to the scene was made in Robert White's touring car. The wanderers claimed to have been given permission to stop in the neighborhood and stated that they were doing some work for a farmer in the neighborhood. Complaints have been filed with the police department against the wanderers. From appearances, the party was of the better class of gypsies. One wagon was a real gem of the cabinet, wagon maker's and painter's art, and the camp was unusually clean. As the police advised the party to move their tents and wagons on the farmer's land if he had given them permission to stay in the neighborhood. The officers would not allow them to continue in camp along the highway.

OLD AT 40

Some Younger at 65 Than Others Are at 40 Years.

So many people whom you meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old, now," they are older in appearance than many who are much more advanced in years.

When you begin to feel old, when your energy begins to fail, build yourself up with our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It is a wonderful bloodmaker and strengthener.

Mr. J. N. Kelly, aged 75, who lives at Lake Charles, La., says: "I took Vinol for a long down condition. It not only built up my strength, but I feel fifteen years younger than I did before taking it."

Thousands of old people have found in Vinol just the medicine they need to build up the feeble, weakened system and create strength. If it fails, we return your money.

P. S. Stop scratching, our Saxo Salve stops itching. We guarantee it.

It's Easy To Darken Gray Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Harmless But Effective Mixed With Sulphur Makes Hair Soft and Luxuriant.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur, for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is coming in vogue again, says a well-known downtown druggist. It was our grandmother's treatment, and hundreds of women and men too, are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is the most popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply dampen a soft brush or sponge with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight, and by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application it is restored to its natural color.

What delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair they say it produces that soft lustrous and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Here, you gray-haired folks, get busy; look years younger.

The Human Procession

BY O. TERRENCE

Anatole France, Nobel Prize Winner,
Born 69 Years Ago Today.

Julius Anatole Thibault France, who won the 1912 Nobel prize for literature, was born in Paris sixty-nine years ago today, April 16, 1845. He was the third Frenchman to capture the Nobel reward of merit for supremacy in letters. Saint-Preux and Maupassant having preceded him in this great prize. Three Germans, Moltke, Bismarck and Heyse, are included in the Nobel literary list, in which Rudyard Kipling is the only English representative.

Anatole France was the son of a bookseller in the City of Light, and was reared in an atmosphere of literary culture. He studied at Stanislas College, and in his young manhood was a journalist and a librarian. In the French Senate, The first book to bear his name was "Alfred de Vigny, a biographical study. This was published when M. France was twenty-four, and was not without merit, although crude and commonplace when compared with the finished and artistic style of later years. A volume of verse followed in 1872. "Le Crime de Sylvestre Bonnard, "Le Crime de Sylvestre Bonnard," published in 1888, made the young author famous, and won him the award of the French Academy, other works notable for their beauty and perfection of literary style, followed in rapid succession. In 1896 M. France became one of the forty immortals of the French Academy.

In personal appearance Mr. France is a representative type of the French: a polished, scholarly and intellectual, literary man. In politics he is a Socialist, in religion a sceptic and agnostic, whose vast powers of satire have often been turned against Christianity and the church. He is little less sceptical of the claims of science. His literary style is simple and direct, and these qualities give it both force and beauty.

Sir Charles Ascheron, a prominent figure among English sportsmen and the owner of a number of famous thoroughbreds, will be sixty-two today. Sir Charles was Charles Gordon Duff until some eight years ago when he changed his name to Ascheron-Smith. He has been married three times, his first wife having been a daughter of the second Lord Vivian. Justice Willis Van Devanter of the United States Supreme court, is a native of Indiana, and was born at Marion, fifty-four years ago tomorrow. He followed the example of his father in adopting the law as a profession, admitted to the bar at twenty-one, practiced in Marion about three years when he went West and hung out his shingle in Cheyenne, Wyo. It wasn't long until Cheyenne pointed with pride to its rising young attorney and sent him to the state legislature and later made him city attorney. He was still in his twenties when President Harrison appointed him chief justice of the territorial supreme court. Later he went to Washington as an assistant attorney general, and three years ago he was elevated to the supreme bench of the republic. Judge Van Devanter is a robust, virile, up-standing man with a youngish, clean-shaven, intellectual face topped with gray hair. He is about the handsomest man that has sat on the supreme bench of this land of outdoor sports, especially golf, hunting and fishing. Nothing that is human is alien to his sympathies, in which he differs from many men in whom the judicial temperament is strongly developed.

Hogan Against Short Ballot; Ohio Solons at Loggerheads

Columbus, April 14.—(Special.)—Starting upon the closing week of the legislative session, the members are embroiled in a bitter struggle about the short ballot proposals. Taking into consideration the fact that the three big political parties, Democrat, Republican and Progressive parties, endorsed the policy and promised to enact legislation along this line, it seems strange that there should be any quarreling about it. Students of electoral reform say that the long ballot may ultimately destroy the primary system. They assert a multiplicity of names on the ballot puts the elector at a great disadvantage at a primary. They point to the fact that in the last primary and election the Ohio voter was called upon to choose a list of candidates from 500 to 500 names. It was impossible, they say, for him to act intelligently. The resolutions by Representative Warnes of Wayne county, one making only the governor and lieutenant governor elective officers, a second giving the people the option to shorten the county ballot, and the third providing for legislative districts if a county is entitled to more than one senator or representative, has stirred up all the trouble. Attorney General Hogan is with the opposition and he has announced he will make speeches against the resolutions.

The supreme test of strength between the radical and conservative members of the senate will come when the bill by Representative Bigelow of Cincinnati, revoking the franchise of the Cincinnati Traction company and substituting an indeterminate one to be granted by the Queen City council is taken up. The measure went through the house, but it is not assured of an easy voyage through the senate. Opponents of the measure assert the passage of it means a stand taken by the state against the validity of duly executed contracts.

Pensions for mothers who are indigent in circumstances seem to be assured. The Greenbush bill making such a provision to enable mothers to rear families of children has passed both houses, but in the lower branch an amendment was tacked on to the bill which necessitates its being sent back to the senate for concurrence. That will be done, and the measure will be sent to the governor, who will sign it. When this measure becomes a law the juvenile judges will pass upon all applications and will determine who shall receive benefits under the law. At the start provisions for mothers are not likely to be attempted on a large scale, as babies for this purpose are to be kept within the Smith law limitations and the county commissioners are to make them. The levy must not exceed one-tenth of 1 per cent. A mother in indigent circumstances and supporting one child under 14 may draw a maximum of $15 per month, with a maximum monthly pension of $7 per month is provided for each additional child under 14. Each order is to remain in effect six months, and the court may from time to time renew all orders.

There are six restrictions to safeguard administration of the law, as follows: (1) The child must be living with its mother. (2) Allowances are to be made only when, without the aid of the allowance, the mother would have to break up her family and work out, and when the money will permit the mother to remain with her children. (3) The mother must be a proper person morally, mentally and physically to rear children. (4) Allowances must be necessary to save the children from neglect. (5) The court must be satisfied that it is for the interest of the child to remain at home with the mother. (6) Full preliminary examinations must be made by a person or agent appointed by the juvenile judge before pension shall be granted. A fine of $5 to $50 is provided for fraudulent attempts to procure allowances or the procuring of pensions by false means.

Another strong provision of the Greenbush bill is that which seeks to raise the standard of administration in juvenile penal correctional as well as charitable and benevolent institutions by giving the state board of charities supervisory power over them. The board and its agents are given authority to visit all such institutions. It is to pass upon all complaints applying for charters, issue licenses to juvenile institutions and to exercise many other functions for the welfare of the children. The compulsory school age for girls is raised to 16 and to 15 for boys. Girls between 16 and 18 must have schooling certificates, and boys must have them between the ages of 15 and 16. No child under 14 years may take part in a theatrical or moving picture performance. Stringent provisions are made with respect to minor labor in manufacturing establishments.

The bill was drafted to carry out the recommendations of Judge Daniel Babst of Crestline and Arthur D. Baldwin of Cleveland, who were appointed a special commission by former Governor Harmon to investigate the subject. Juvenile judges throughout the state were consulted in the drafting of the measure.

After a week of skirmishing and cross-firing in the senate, the bill by Senator Vincent Zmunt of Cuyahoga county, providing for the regulation of private banks, was passed and messaged over to the house, where it is sure to draw the fire of numerous enemies. Representative H. R. Kennedy of Allen county was the author of a measure, which was acceptable to the private bankers, and their lobby lined up for it. The Kennedy bill passed the house easily, the author explaining the bill was drafted to carry out the provisions of a constitutional amendment. When it was messaged to the senate the Zmunt bill was found to be on the calendar ahead of it. An effort was made to take it up for consideration ahead of the Zmunt measure, but the effort was unsuccessful. During the arguments senators favoring the Kennedy bill declared the other measure would drive the small private banks out of business, and they asserted the Zmunt bill was drawn to favor the "interests" dominating the financial system of the commonwealth. An opinion from the attorney general's office favoring the Zmunt bill helped its author in mustering 17 votes, just sufficient to put it through the senate.

The way was paved in the house for an investigation of the minimum wage for women when that body passed the Friebohn bill, requiring manufacturers and mercantile establishments to furnish data to the state industrial commission. On the information thus acquired a minimum wage bill for women is to be drafted and introduced at a subsequent session of the general assembly.

The Finckelroth student voting bill, which caused the break between former Governor Harmon and W. W. Durbin of Kenton, Democratic war house, in 1911, again has passed the general assembly and is awaiting the signature of the governor to become a law. In the Eighth district, the students hold the balance of power, and Frank B. Willis, Republican, who formerly taught school at the Ada Normal university, used this strength to get into congress. But it is not only in political matters that the students hold the balance of power—they vote on bond issues, although none of them own property in the municipalities and the great majority of them are but temporary residents. It was pointed out during the arguments that the measure was not for the purpose of disfranchising anyone, but was to determine the eligibility of men to exercise the franchise. The break between Durbin and Governor Harmon came when the latter vetoed the student voting bill passed in 1911, at the request, it is said, of Mayor Baker of Cleveland. Durbin insists that the former governor promised to sign the measure, providing certain changes were made, and this was done. It is said that Governor Cox is of a different attitude and will approve the bill. Congressman Willis appears destined to lose his seat in Washington, for under his bill all students must vote where their permanent residences are.

The resolution which Senator Bernstein of Cuyahoga county offered to submit a constitutional amendment permitting county home rule in taxation affairs had an auspicious start, but it has been killed. Passed by the senate early last week, it was exterminated later. The farmers of Ohio and other owners of real estate have nothing to fear from the single taxers in the present general assembly. They are outnumbered and the predominant sentiment is against the Henry George theory of taxation, which, if it is charged, would be made effective through the home rule in taxation amendment.

CAPITAL COMMENT

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 14.—[Special.]—The department of labor was created on account of the demand of workmen and because these men had votes. Before that the department of commerce was created. It was not a real necessity, but Roosevelt wanted it. Two departments, neither of which was a prime necessity, have been created during the past ten years, while a department actually necessary has failed because there were no votes behind it.

The government needs a department of colonial affairs. Such a department should take over the management of the Philippine Islands, the Panama canal, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the other islands. It would be an important department, and the man who conducted it would have his hands full.

War Secretary Burdened.

How can a secretary of war give that adequate attention to the army who has one man's job with the canal and Philippines? But our war secretary has even more. All the river and harbor improvements come under his supervision. As a result army matters are left to subordinates or are neglected. No matter how good a man may be, he can't do everything, and in the army there is a great amount of detail that should receive the attention of the civilian secretary. It should be his duty to know about everything which requires his signature, especially when it relates to such an important branch of the service as the army.

Garrison Makes Good.

It is the opinion of those who have come in contact with Secretary Garrison that he is making good as secretary of war in spite of the many duties that encroach upon his time. Mr. Garrison has the right idea about an efficient, well drilled army, with such preparation for a reserve force as will insure results in case of sudden war.

Bob Is Busy.

Bob Broussard of Louisiana is the real busy man these days. He is a congressman and senator elect and has a sort of double duty to perform. Broussard feels bound to prevent free sugar from overtaking his state, and that is a mighty hard task when nearly nine-tenths of the Democrats in the house and the president are against him. Broussard will fight as long as there is a chance, however.

"Boy Orator" Amuses Bryan.

It was at a dinner given by an ambassador to Secretary Bryan where some mention was made of a young man as a "boy orator." "That will not hurt him," remarked Bryan. "They used to call me the 'Boy Orator of the Platte,' but it did me no harm."

"Do you remember Foraker's remark on that subject?" asked one of the senators. "He wanted to say something about Mr. Bryan and when he heard him called the orator of the Platte remarked that the Platte was a mile broad and an inch deep."

"Yes, I have heard that at times," replied Bryan, "but I do not see that it has made any difference in my career."

Which indicates that Mr. Bryan is quite well satisfied with his present situation and condition.

Ethics of Betting.

It was the first day of the session of the new congress. A Texas man whose district is close to Oklahoma was conversing with another member. "I'll bet 'Alfalfa Bill' Murray of Oklahoma gets in before the day's session adjourns," said the Texan.

"I'll bet Baker of California gets in first," was the reply of the other congressman.

"Here," said another man, "there is a question of betting ethics involved in those wagers. In betting on Raker my friend knows the record and is betting on a 'sure thing' and loses."

"Oh, I don't know about that," remarked another member. "This Texas man lives down near Oklahoma and knows 'Alfalfa Bill,' and he's the man that is betting on a sure thing. So you see it's a toss-up."

But the Texas man won, for "Alfalfa Bill," as Murray is known far and wide, was right in the thick of a debate on the rules the very first day.

Advantage For Ex-Members.

Ex-members of the house who are loafing or lobbying have a great advantage in this new scheme of seats. As there are no names on the seats any man who drops into a chair can stay there. In the other days the name of the member entitled him to rout anybody out and he would do it on crowded days. Dozens of ex-members hanging about Washington go to the house on the big days and hold down good seats. Some day there will be a "roar" about these ex-members, and they will be denied the privileges of the floor.

Don't let your baby ideal be restricted to high living.

Resignation

The President declined to keep my claims in mind. I thought I had a thought I had a post in France, or play around St. James my diplomatic games. "I cannot you appoint," said Woodrow, "so avant! I have no place for you, so scatt! skedaddle! shoot!" At first my heart was sore, and fervently I swore, and said I would aspire to retribution dire. "I'll poison Woodrow's cow," I said, with darling brow. But when I looked around on those who won, and found them worried and distraught, I said, "Revenge is rot!" All troubled were the chaps who gathered in the snaps; all burdened with their woes, and tagged by jealous foes, all doing countless chores, all trailed by tire-some bores with ne'er an hour of rest to soothe the savage breast. And so I cried: "Cogs wounds! And also tare and 'ounds! Ods fish," quoth I. "I'll trail back to my native vale, and there, among my aunts, I'll tend my cabbage plants, and herd my bumble bees, and prune my pumpkin trees." And here at home, in peace, I deal in elbow grease. Palladiums may bust and bulwarks fall to dust and spangled banners rot, I do not care a jot. My peas are doing well; my onions—how they smell!

The Late Wilbur Wright's Birthday is to be Honored

By the City of Dayton, O.

Dayton's recent disaster has temporarily stopped the work on the monument to Wilbur Wright, by which the people of the city proposed to commemorate the fame of the senior of the two famous aviation pioneers. Today is the anniversary of the birth of Wilbur Wright in 1867. While a native of Indiana, most of his life was spent in the now stricken city of Dayton, and it was there, amidst the scoffs and jeers of the neighbors, that he and Orville completed the first successful heavier-than-air flying machine. While Dayton's misfortune will compel a postponement of the memorial plans, it is certain that they will be eventually carried out. The scheme as outlined by the Wright Memorial Commission involved a memorial park, in which there is to be a figure in bronze to mark the spot where the first aeroplane was made, in September, 1904, by the Wright brothers. Despite Dayton's quite natural incredulity, when the "crazy Wright boys" first tinkered with their foolish "contraptions," the city is now intensely proud of their achievements. The recent flood came near destroying the Wright collection of models, plans, records and drawings, the waters stopping just short of the building in which the priceless collection was stored. The unpretentious home of Orville Wright and his sister and their aged father, Bishop Wright, was flooded. The Bishop was transported to safety in a boat, while Orville and his sister escaped in a motor truck, which ploughed through four feet of water.

On Second Thought

An old-fashioned woman's first thought is for her children. Her second thought is for her canned fruit.

The rule is that the happy father pays ten cent cigars on a boy baby and five cents on a girl.

Every respectable and well-to-do family is compelled to devote a good deal of time and attention to the task of keeping its worthless relatives in the background.

Every unpleasant incident has its compensating feature. When a woman cries she chooses up so badly that she cannot talk.

Labor Day not only gives the working classes a holiday, but it also furnishes the barbers with the only opportunity they have to play baseball.

They say good actors are hard to find. And it may be added, that good screen-actors, contraltos, baritone and basses are none too plentiful.

The field of scientific exploration has its limitations. None of the experiments reveal what a rooster finds to crow about at three o'clock in the morning.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Flat Foot.

Declaring that proper footwear will cure most cases of flat foot, a well known New York physician says: "Boots or shoes must be the shape of the foot, but it is not necessary to wear boots of an ugly shape to secure this primary essential. To insure that the big toe is not pushed out against the other toes the inner side of the boot where it lies is kept straight. The soles should be a sixth to a fourth of an inch thick and the heel broad, an inch or less in height. If the degree of flat feet be anything more than the merest trace mechanical means are utilized to throw the weight of the body, distributed down the leg, slightly outside the center of the ankle joint. To effect this the sole and heel of each boot must be thickened along its inner side by a quarter, one third or half an inch, the amount depending upon the severity of the case; the worse the case the greater the thickening."

SEMI-CENTENNIAL OF PORTER'S DARING FEAT.

One of the most spectacular incidents of the American Civil war occurred half a century ago today, when Admiral Porter, with the Mississippi fleet, ran the batteries of Vicksburg. Both sides of the river at Vicksburg were strongly fortified by the Confederates, and their heavy batteries were all turned on the Union boats. Severe as was the fire, nearly all of the gunboats and transports passed without serious injury. This movement was followed by Gen. Grant's march southward, his crossing the river and his attack on Vicksburg from the south, one of the decisive conflicts of the long struggle between North and South.

"I WON'T SLEEP IN A GREEN BED"

Dr. C. F. Legge, who returned Wednesday morning from Zanesville, brings back an amusing story related of one of the victims of the destructive flood there. One of the iron beds sent to the relief committee was painted a beautiful (?) green. It was offered to a woman who had been sleeping on a bed made up on the floor for two weeks. She gazed at the bed a moment and declared, "I never have slept in a green bed, and I won't begin now." She refused to accept the gift and left the relief station.

ABSORB SKIN, CHASES WRINKLES—YOUNG AGAIN

"The shock at beholding myself in the glass after nine long weeks' absence, nearly caused a relapse," writes Emily Coleman in Home Queen. "The faded face, with its lines of illness and worry, seemed thirty years older. Now, I thought, I could not attend my husband's wedding, eleven days off, to which I had looked hopefully forward. She herself came to my rescue. She procured an ounce of ordinary mercurochrome at the drug store, which she bade me spread on like cold cream, washing it off next morning. Applied nightly, this apparently absorbed the withered skin, so gently I experienced no discomfort. Upon the wedding morn the pallid complexion had entirely given way to one of youthful color and loveliness."

And there wasn't a wrinkle. This due to a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salicylic acid in half pint witch hazel. The daily face bath had dispersed every line."

OBITUARY

MR. JAMES T. CONNOR.

As a great shock to his many friends in this city came the announcement on Wednesday morning of the death of Mr. James T. Connor at his home 172 East Main street.

Mr. Connor has been in ill health for the past two years, but it was only since the first of the year that he was incapacitated from attending his work. The direct cause of his death is not known, but probably resulted from a complication. Death relieved his sufferings on Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The deceased was born in Grafton, W. Va., but has been a resident of Newark for the past thirty-five years. He was united in marriage with Miss Catherine Sheridan, and of this marriage two children were born, Misses Helen and Margaret Connor. Mr. Connor has always been in the employ of the B. & O. railroad and was one of the road's most capable and most popular engineers.

He was a devoted member of the Catholic church and was affiliated with the Knights of Columbus and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed but they will be held at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Rev. Father Waterson officiating.

FUNERAL OF IGNATIUS SEILER.

The funeral services of Ignatius Seiler, whose death occurred Sunday night, was conducted at St. Francis de Sales church Wednesday morning by Rev. Father O'Boylan and interment took place in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

Attending the funeral were two sisters of the deceased from Cincinnati, one of whom is 84 years of age.

In course of his sermon Rev. Father O'Boylan took occasion to pay particular respect to the broad educational accomplishments of Mr. Seiler, who had been a traveler and a philosopher of no mean observation. He was 75 years of age.

HENRY CLAY HARE.

Henry Clay Hare, for twenty-four years postmaster at Alexandria, Licking county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. M. Ross, in Schiller street Tuesday night, after an attack of paralysis lasting several weeks. Brief funeral services were held at the home at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The body was brought here for burial Thursday at 12:45. Interment Cedar Hill.

Mr. Hare was 80 years of age and a member of McCoy Post, G. A. R. He served in the battles of Shiloh, Vicksburg and Port Donaldson, as corporal of Company B, of the Seventy-Sixth Ohio regiment. He moved to Columbus in 1893 to represent the Curtis Publishing company. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Beale Marshall of this city and a niece Mrs. O. C. Jones.

FUNERAL OF MRS. W. A. KERHAN.

Col. I. N. Milburn and wife were over to the Protestant Hospital at Columbus Monday to see their daughter, Mrs. Ida Glaser, who was operated on last Saturday by Dr. Leechman. Mr. Milburn returned home Monday evening and Mrs. Milburn remained with her daughter, whose condition is quite serious.

An interesting and enthusiastic meeting was held by the Licking County Pomona Grange at this place last Saturday. About seventy-five members from different parts of the county together with members of our own Grange filled the hall to its capacity. The main feature of the day was the presence of Hon. S. C. Strode, state dairy and food commissioner, and L. J. Taber, worthy lecturer of the Ohio State Grange. Mr. Strode gave us one of his enthusiastic talks on the value of the Grange and organized efforts of the farmers and the community. He had with him samples of adulterated food and some false weights and measures and explained how to know and avoid them.

His subject was "The Grange at Work." Mr. Orr of Brownsville Banner Grange read an excellent paper on "The Bright Side of Disagreeable Things." The value of such a meeting cannot be estimated in dollars and cents and members who were not present certainly missed a rare treat.

Mrs. J. Buckingham and daughter Lois, Mrs. H. A. McIntosh and Miss Nettie Wilson attended the evangelistic meetings at Pataskala Sunday evening.

Mrs. Abe Pickering, who has been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Catherine Brock, returned to her home in Harrison county, Tuesday morning.

CHATS WITH THINKING WOMEN

by Barbara Boyd

The Cheer of a Look Backward

THE world do move," as Galileo privately assured himself, though outwardly he conformed to the public opinion of his day. And the world keeps right on moving, and moving forward, in spite of those who believe it stationary, and those who believe it moving backward. And to make sure of the movement, and of the direction in which it is going—if this is necessary—or just for the pleasure of seeing it spin, get upon some mountain top of achievement once in a while, and scan the path of progress it has made. It is inspiring. When you come down, you feel more than ever like putting your shoulder to the wheel and giving a push.

Its progress in one direction alone is shown by the leap from infant damnation to certified milk for babies. It hasn't been so terribly long since the question of infant damnation occupied the polemic stage, and arguments for and against waged fiercely. When we had a minute to spare from our every day duties, we took up cudgels for and against.

But the question now is almost forgotten. Nobody, except in perhaps some out of the way corner of the world, thinks about it. If we have any time to spare, we zealously are at work providing certified milk for babies, of which no doubt, the babies more heartily approve.

But looked at in perspective, is it not a big jump, and one in the forward direction. And is not the progress it indicates, heartening. It means not only a widening of mental horizon, but a deepening of the love of humanity.

And it is indicative, is it not, of the direction in which we are generally going. We may think we are standing still. We may at times conclude dismally that we are retrograding. But if we will just take a long, long look at the path this old world is blazing through time and space, we can see we are leaving behind the dense, dark jungles of ignorance and prejudice and superstition, and coming out where we have made clearings, and where peace and prosperity and the feeling of brotherhood reign.

And what we will still go on to is not yet known. But the progress of the past is a bright promise for the future.

Barbara Boyd.

Can't Get Away From It

It is possible to nourish, strengthen and Rebuild the Brain by Food?

Every man who thinks uses up part of the brain each day. Why doesn't it all disappear and leave an empty skull in say a month of brain work? Because the man rebuilds each day.

If he builds a little less than he destroys, brain fog and nervous prostration result sure. If he builds back a little more each day, the brain grows stronger and more capable. That also is sure. Where does man get the material to rebuild his brain? It is from air, or the ice of the Arctic sea? When you come to think about it, the rebuilding material must be in the food and drink.

That also is sure.

Are the brain rebuilding materials found in all food? In a good variety but not in suitable proportion in all.

To illustrate: we know bones are made largely of lime and magnesia taken from food; therefore to make healthy bone structure we must have food containing these things. We would hardly feed only sugar and fat to make healthy bone structure in a growing child.

If we desire to keep brain strong and healthy we would use food known to contain the things Nature uses for the purpose.

True, Nature provides these elements in a variety of edible things. We submit the following facts for those who care to know something definite on the subject:

Analysis of brain by unquestionable authority. Geoghegan, shows of Mineral Salts Phosphoric Acid and Potash combined (Phosphate of Potash) 2.91 per cent of the total. 5.33 of mineral Salts.

This is over one-half.

Beauvais, another authority, shows "Phosphoric Acid combined" and Potash 73.44 per cent from a total of 101.07.

Considerable more than one-half of Phosphate of Potash.

Analysis of Grape-Nuts shows Potassium and Phosphorous (which join and make Phosphate of Potash) is considerably more than one-half of all the mineral salts in the food.

Dr. Geo. W. Carey, an authority on the constituent elements of the body, says: "The gray matter of the brain is controlled entirely by the inorganic cell-salt, Potassium Phosphate (Phosphate of Potash). This salt unites with albumen and by the addition of oxygen creates nerve fluid, or the gray matter of the brain. Of course there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve fluid, but Potassium Phosphate is the chief factor and has the power within itself to attract, by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life."

Further on he says: "The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form, exactly as Nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies—this is the only law of cure."

The natural conclusion is that if Phosphate of Potash is the needed mineral element in brain and you use food which does not contain it, you have brain fog because its daily loss is not supplied.

On the contrary, if you eat food known to be rich in this element, you place before the life forces that which nature demands from brain-building.

Mind does not work well on a brain that is broken down by lack of nourishment.

A peaceful and evenly poised mind is necessary to good digestion.

Worry, anxiety, fear, hate, etc., etc., directly interfere with or stop the flow of Pityalian, the digestive juice of the south, and also interfere with the flow of the digestive juices of stomach and pancreas.

Therefore, the mental state of the individual has much to do (more than suspected) with digestion.

Brain is made of Phosphate of Potash as the principal Mineral Salt, added to albumen and water.

Grape-Nuts contain that element as more than one-half of all its mineral salts. We must remember that nearly 95 per cent of the brain is composed of water and albumen, but the little worker Phosphate of Potash must be present in order to blend the more bulky materials into useable form.

So with Grape-Nuts. The Phosphate of Potash is more than one-half of all the mineral salts, but the total volume of those elements is exceedingly small as compared with the greater bulk of other food elements contained in Grape-Nuts.

We should also remember that this small ingredient should not be put into the food in the form it might come from a chemist, because man cannot produce these elements in as digestible a form as Old Mother Nature, when she puts them in the wheat and barley from which Grape-Nuts is made.

A healthy brain is important, if one would "do things" in this world.

A man who sneers at "Mind" sneers at the best and least understood part of himself. That part which some folks believe links us to the Infinite.

Mind asks for a healthy brain upon which to act, and Nature has defined a way to make a healthy brain and renew it day by day as it is used up from work of the previous day.

Nature's way to rebuild is by the use of food which supplies the things required. Brain rebuilding material is certainly found in a very natural and perfect form in

WHEELING WOMAN PRAISES DOCTORS

SUFFERED FROM STOMACH, KIDNEY AND NERVE TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS UNTIL GOING TO UNITED DOCTORS.

OTHER DOCTORS FAILED.

No Other Treatment Helped Her. But Two Weeks of New Treatment Accomplished Great Results.

Again the same story is told of a sufferer who has been unable to obtain any relief from their ailment before going to the United Doctors. There has been so many hundreds of statements like the following already made in Newark that it has set the United Doctors as a standard and made the Newark Institute of these specialists indeed the final resort of sufferers. At the Newark Institute on the second floor of the Arcade many scores of patients are treated daily and from patients nothing but praise is heard.

The following tells its own story. "I have been ailing for five years with Stomach, Kidney and Nerve trouble, which no amount of treatment seemed to help. I treated with two prominent Wheeling physicians but all to no avail. My limbs pained me constantly and my stomach was in bad shape and I would blot after eating and could not enjoy food. My appetite was very poor most of the time and altogether I was in bad shape.

Two weeks ago I went to the United Doctors, who have their Wheeling Institute at No. 42 Twelfth street, and results have been remarkable. My Stomach, Kidneys and Nerves are now in good shape and I have no more bloating and misery. No other treatment ever gave a fraction of the help I have received in this time. In fact I feel that I am entirely cured and cannot thank the United Doctors too much for what they have done for me."

Mrs. Lina Purcell.

SCHOOL BOARD

icles prepared for the work. Later a resolution incorporating Mr. Hawkins' ideas was adopted by the board. It included the thanks of the board to Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Barnes, the high school faculty and pupils as well as the people who contributed to the fund.

A resolution to request the city engineer to prepare a plat of the ground, showing dimensions and boundaries as well as the meanderings of the creek bed on the south. This map will be forwarded to the play grounds association with a view of getting expert advice on the arrangement of the equipment.

This concluded the business with reference to the play grounds and other business was taken up. A resolution was adopted that bidders in the future may give personal bonds satisfactory to the board instead of surety bonds.

The matter of selling the bonds for the addition to the Conrad (Indiana street) building was taken up. But one offer was made. Messrs. Hoehler & Cummings of Toledo offered a premium of $7.50 and accrued interest for the entire issue of $30,000, but there were so many provisos in the offer that the bid was rejected.

A resolution was adopted increasing the rate of interest on the bonds from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent and the bonds will be advertised.

The names of Mrs. Andrews, Miss Julia Smith, Miss Mary Miller and W. D. Gilbert as school enumerators were placed in nomination and the four were elected. The enumerators will be paid three cents per name.

Bids were opened for the construction of the addition to the Conrad building. Only two general contractors bid on the work. Showers & Taylor bid for the building was $17,550. L. Ferguson & Son's bid was $19,550. J. D. Keeley submitted a bid of $22,000 for the roofing and sheet metal work.

John K. Platto's bid on the brick and hollow tile work was $5,650, including labor and material.

For the heating and ventilating, the following bids were offered: Columbus Heating and Ventilating Co., Columbus, $3,750; Chappel, Warren & Co., Cleveland, $1,000; Bruce Heating and Ventilating Co., $2,750; Huffman Condit Co., Columbus, $3,450.

Two Newark firms filed bids on the plumbing, as follows: Dicken & Reinhold, $2,004.57; Redman & Holler, $2,000.50.

FUNDS AND SUPPLIES

are all of the most needed variety and, as a result are especially acceptable with this city's greatest thanks.

The 45 or 50 tons of supplies sent from Newark and the published cash subscriptions amounting in all to about $2500 do not represent all that Newark has done for the flood sufferers. The Advocate has learned of a $200 cash contribution that was sent to Zanesville by a man who wants his name withheld and this paper knows of another $200 subscription made to the Red Cross.

Members of the First M. E. church packed eight large dry goods boxes with supplies for flood sufferers, which were shipped to Zanesville over the R. & O. Tuesday. The Young Women's Home Missionary society made 19 comforts which were included in the shipment. Several societies of the church are busy preparing relief supplies for flood victims. Rev. L. C. Sparks, pastor of the church, sent a check for $30, and expects to have a further cash contribution ready after next Sunday.

The North Newark Christian Union church ladies have just sent to Zanesville a large box containing clothing, two boxes of canned fruit and two bushels of potatoes.

Members of St. Paul's English Lutheran church shipped a cartload of provisions, clothing and miscellaneous supplies to Dresden, Wednesday, over the Pennsylvania road for the benefit of flood victims. The railroad carried the supplies without charge.

The Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church also packed several barrels Tuesday for shipment to Dresden, where there is great need and suffering, according to the statement of Rev. Mr. Bergen of the Dresden Presbyterian church, who is here attending the meeting of the Zanesville presbytery. Rev. Mr. Bergen declares the situation in Dresden is such as to require prompt relief work. Provisions, clothing and household supplies are badly needed, and an epidemic is feared unless conditions are relieved soon.

LAST WILL

culated, one being that the pope is at the point of death, and that Agostino Pifferi, an Australian monk, has been ordered to be in readiness to bring to the patient the last communion, this being the prerogative of his office.

This appears to be an exaggeration of the situation, although undoubtedly the pope's condition is much worse, on account of the fact that he did not take sufficient rest and overexerted himself, as he had done on previous occasions. This resulted in general prostration, elevation of the temperature and inability to retain nourishment, even the very lightest nutriment.

The arrival in Rome last night of Angelo Sarto, the pope's brother, was interpreted in some quarters as a certain sign that all hope had been abandoned. It was forgotten that Angelo Sarto left his own village on his journey to the holy city long before the present setback of the patient occurred; in fact when the condition of the pope had greatly improved.

Angelo was received with open arms by his sisters, who seem to think that the more the pope is surrounded by members of his family, the easier it will be to save him.

Professor Marchisavva's visit to the sickroom last night lasted 10 minutes. When he left the vatican he was besieged for details, as the aggravation of the pope's condition was already known, but he renewed his assurances that the situation was not grave.

This statement being received with incredulity, the physician remarked that if there were any real danger he would have remained at the vatican or would go there during the night, which he did not intend to do.

Nellie Chapman has homesteaded 160 acres in New Mexico and is teaching a nearby school to secure development funds.

COLORED RESORT RAIDED BY POLICE

Patrolmen Gorman, Sosa, Moore and Boscover raided a resort operated by Margaret Loney, 601 E. 10th street, at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. When the inmates and a number of visitors became disorderly, five women and five men were locked up at the city prison. The Loney woman was fined $10 and costs for running a place and the other prisoners drew fines of $5 and costs.

Four drunks drew similar fines and two strangers in town, arrested by patrolmen Shively and Hurlbaugh, were fined $5 and costs and ordered committed for "insulting" the officers.

QUALITY NOT QUANTITY

Your primary consideration in your Piano purchase should be Quality—Tone Quality, coupled with durability, and your secondary consideration should be, a case of artistic design and beauty. You will find a full line of both upright and Grands on our floor to fill your every requirements, backed by our absolute guarantee and priced from three hundred to one thousand dollars.

If you must sacrifice quality and are looking for price alone, we can sell you a "box" called a "piano" from $75 to $150.00. These "boxes" are not guaranteed, because they will not stand the test of time, and if we should guarantee them, we would have to make good, because our GUARANTEE IS GOOD.
